PARADE DEPARTS AT 9:00 AM

PARADE ROUTE:

Parade start point is the intersection of Upland Way and Lincoln Avenue. At the commencement of the parade take a left and head south on Upland Way. Then take the second left on Barrington Ave. Once on Barrington Avenue take the fifth left onto Maple Avenue followed by the eighth left onto County Rd. Parade release point is the second entrance to the Barrington Town Hall on the right. Once at the release point all marching units will turn right, clear County Road and move towards hillside in front of the Town Hall to participate in the remainder of the Memorial Day Observances.

POST PARADE INCLEMENT WEATHER: Upon conclusion of the parade, if inclement weather prevents outdoor activities on the Town Hall lawn, the remainder of the ceremony will be conducted in the Town Council Chambers.

Sergeant Donald Lamoureax, is one of eight siblings born and raised in Massachusetts. He entered the draft during the Korean War and enlisted in the US Army at the age of 17. While at Fort Devens, Don volunteered for the US Army Airborne Corps and attended a 13-week basic training program for paratroopers at Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky. Following a year assignment with the 101st Airborne Division in Kentucky, Sgt. Lamoureax was reassigned to the 187th Regimental Combat Team in Japan. This unit would later deploy to Korea under the command of Brigadier General Westmorland. While engaged in route clearance operations in North Korea, Sgt. Lamoureux was wounded by a booby trapped anti-personnel mine. After sustaining shrapnel injuries to his leg and eye, Sgt. Lamoureax was evacuated and spent the next five months in the Osaka Army Hospital in Japan. Following additional treatment stateside, Don was medically discharged in March 1953. Sergeant Lamoureax received the Purple Heart for his combat wounds.
